

Summer 2018 Student Intern Program

Applications due Wednesday, February 14, 2018 at 5pm (PST)

sfstudentintern.org

Gain valuable on-the-job experience under the guidance of experienced transportation professionals. Interns will participate in transportation planning and engineering activities including:

- Designing and implementing transportation safety improvements and multimodal complete streets
- Performing community outreach and engagement, responding to community requests for transportation improvements
- Coordinating with other city agencies, contractors and communities on transportation-related projects

SFMTA is considering candidates for the following groups and more:

Traffic Operations
Traffic Routing
Livable Streets
Parking
Capital Finance
Communications

Transit Engineering / Sfgo
Transit Service Planning
Transportation Planning
Transportation Demand Mgmt
Emergency Management
Signal Projects / Special Events

For more information about SFMTA, please see sfmta.com

Requirements & Details:

- At the time of filing, the applicant must be in an accredited Engineering, Planning, Architecture, Landscape Architecture, Computer Science / Information Services Program at a university or a related field at a community college. Applicants considering a career in transportation engineering or planning are preferred.
- An applicant must be returning to their undergraduate program or entering/continuing a graduate program in Fall 2018. For students that have graduated, an applicant can be appointed to begin work within 6 months after graduation.
- All persons entering the City and County of San Francisco workforce are required to provide verification of authorization to work in the U.S.
- Starting salary of $27.5375 per hour or $2,203 bi-weekly depending on your qualifications. Part-time work opportunities may be available during the school year.
- SFMTA is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Minorities, women and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

How to apply:

- Applicants must complete and submit all application materials online at sfstudentintern.org
- Application packet must contain the following in PDF format:

Student Intern Application form

found online at sfstudentintern.org

One-page cover letter

addressing your interest in transportation engineering and/or planning and career goals

Current resume

Current transcripts

unofficial transcripts accepted

For more information, e-mail: SSDinternship@sfmta.com

