

Contractor Position: Environmental Assessor

DNV Supply Chain & Assurance Services is seeking candidates for Environmental Assessors with experience in Real Estate, transportation, and manufacturing industries to work with the DNV Sustainability Services Team in North America. The positions are contractor positions.

The environmental assessors' primarily responsible for delivery of such services. The contractor positions may be based in any home (remote) office in the continental United States.

Tasks May Include

- Be able to deliver audits alone or as part of a multi-disciplinary team
- Ability to review GHG Emissions, waste and water data, calculations and emission factors
- Ability to develop sampling plans, and detailed verification reports
- Conduct desk-based bench marking and research on clients, industries and market trends.
- Analyze client documentation and identify improvement opportunities (gap analysis).
- Synthesize research findings into key themes, analyze information to develop conclusions and draft recommendations for client deliverables.
- Prepare client deliverables.
- Participate in client meetings and workshops and maintain required documentation.
- Delivery of environmental assessment to GHG Emissions Inventory, Waste and Water under CDP,

Requirements

Position Requirements:

- Graduate or Recent graduate with experience in consulting, corporate, industrial or other environmental services
- Demonstrated critical thinking and analytical skills.
- Superb written and oral communication skills.
- Strong interpersonal skills to interface effectively within multiple levels of consulting staff and client personnel.
- High level proficiency in use of Microsoft Office programs-comfort with complicated Excel formulas, pivot tables, etc., plus ability to present information succinctly and visually in PowerPoint; sophisticated data analysis a plus.
- Demonstrated interest in business consulting and environmental/social issues
- Experience with GHG Reporting protocols, methodologies and GHG Reporting and Verification Regulations
- Experience with water and waste and other GRI Indicators
- Experience working or conducting Environmental Assessment in one of the below sectors
 - Manufacturing (Food products, household goods, textiles, wood products, pulp and paper, basic metals and fabricated metal products, electrical equipment, machinery and equipment, electrical and optical equipment, aerospace, medical devices, rubber and plastic products)
 - Organizational inventories (corporate reporters) e.g. public administration, education, transport (ICAO CORSIA for aviation), storage and communications, and information technology

